

William A. (“Bill”) Eddy, LCSW, Esq.

SUMMARY BIO

Bill Eddy is the globally-recognized leader in training professionals in the management of high-conflict personalities in a variety of government, business and nonprofit settings. His extensive background as a family law attorney, mediator and therapist provided him the experience to create state-of-the art seminars that have been conducted worldwide for such audiences as: human resource directors; school administration staffs; employee assistance personnel; judges; mediators; mental health professionals; attorneys; hospital administrators, government agencies officials and staff; and, numerous others. He has presented in over 25 states in the U.S., in several provinces in Canada, and in the countries of France, Sweden, Australia and New Zealand.

PROFESSIONAL

- Training Specialist, Mediator and Conflict Coach, Sharp Resolutions, Inc., 2015-Present
- President, Trainer and Mediator, High Conflict Institute (2008-Present)
- Senior Mediator, National Conflict Resolution Center (2005-Present)
- Adjunct Faculty, National Judicial College (2008-Present)
- Adjunct Faculty, Pepperdine University School of Law (2009-Present)
- Attorney and Mediator, Law Offices of William A. Eddy (1993-2008)
- Adjunct Professor, University of San Diego School of Law (1997-2003)
- Psychotherapist (Clinical Social Worker), Counseling & Recovery Institute, San Diego, (1987-1992) and Mesa Vista Psychiatric Hospital, San Diego (1985-1987)

EDUCATION

- J.D., University of San Diego
- Master of Social Work, San Diego State University
- B.S., Psychology, Case Western Reserve University

TRAININGS / PRESENTATIONS / PUBLICATIONS

- Please refer to http://www.sharpresolutions.com/team/fullresume_billeddy.html#training for an extensive list of training programs, presentations and publications for managing high-conflict personalities in a wide array of government, business, legal and other settings.